

In 2021, the Chinese companies Zijin and HBIS were the largest exporters in Serbia

The value of exports of the 15 largest exporters in Serbia in 2021 was 5.5 billion euros, and the largest exporters are the owner of the Smederevo ironworks HBIS Group, whose exports were 752.7 million euros, and Zijin Bor Copper with exports of 750.3 million euros, the Ministry of Finance announced.

The Oil Industry of Serbia (NIS) with exports of 481.9 million euros is in third place, and in fourth place is Pirot's Tiger Tires, whose exports amounted to 430.3 million euros and then the owner of the Čukaru Peki mine near Bor, with exports of 392 million euros.

Followed by Henkel Serbia with exports of 369.9 million euros, Leoni from Prokuplje with exports of 349.5 million euros, Jura from Raca with 301.4 million euros, FCA Serbia with 285.5 million euros, Grundfos from Indjija with 238.1 million euros.

Among the largest exporters are Robert Bosch with 236.7 million euros, Petrohemija whose exports were 235 million euros, Hemofarm from Vrsac with 219.6 million euros, ZF Serbia from Pancevo with 215.6 million euros and Philip Morris from Nis with 206.4 million euros, Danas reports.