

Serbian President Tomislav Nikolic on Thursday backed a group of businesspeople who will take part in a cultural heritage festival in the United Arab Emirates in early December, urging them to act like a team.

Your success at one of the most significant cultural and business events in the UAE will also be Serbia's success, Nikolic said.

Nikolic also backed Serbian companies in presenting their products in foreign markets, as well as presenting Serbia and its economy in the UAE as effectively as possible, the presidential press office said in a statement.

The representatives of the companies to be featured at the festival thanked Nikolic for making it possible for them to participate in the event.
