

Program loan for public policies for climate change and Loan for the project of modernization of the railway sector in Serbia will be signed

The Prime Minister of the Republic of Serbia, Ana Brnabic, will meet tomorrow with the Regional Director for Eurasia of the French Development Agency (AFD), Cecil Kupri. After the meeting, it is planned to sign an agreement for two loans: a Program Loan for Public Policies for Climate Change and a Loan for a project to modernize the railway sector in Serbia using a multi-phase program approach.

The agreements will be signed by the Minister of Finance Sinisa Mali with the Ambassador of France to Serbia Jean-Louis Falconi, the Regional Director for Eurasia of the French Development Agency Cecil Kupri and the Regional Director of the World Bank for the Western Balkans Linda Van Gelder.

After the signing, statements for the media are planned, the government's Service for Cooperation with the Media announced, B92 reports.