

The work of the tax administration of Serbia is becoming more efficient, and the cost for the economy is lower

All taxpayers can find everything about the new fiscalization system on the new website budiefiskalizovan.gov.rs, the Minister of Finance Sinisa Mali revealed.

- The transition period begins on November 1, 2021 and lasts until 30.4.2022, by which time all taxpayers of fiscalization, ie all those who have fiscal devices, should switch to the new model - added Mali.

He mentioned that the meeting on this topic was extremely good.

The Minister of Finance said that, with the introduction of the new system, the work of the tax administration will be more efficient, but that the cost for the economy will also be lower, Novosti reports.
