

The companies "Srbija Zijin Bor Copper" with 626.9 million euros and HBIS Group with 619.6 million euros worth of exports took the first and second place on the list of top 15 exporters in the period January-October, the Ministry of Finance announced.

The third value of exports was realized by the Oil Industry of Serbia with 395.5 million euros, it was announced in the presentation on current macroeconomic trends.

The total export of the first 15 exporters amounted to 4.4 billion euros.

With an export of 356.1 million euros, Pirot's "Tiger Tyres" is on the fourth place, and the export of 301.2 million euros was realized by "Henkel Serbia".

The list of the largest exporters is followed by "Leoni" from Prokuplje with 283 million euros, "Jura" from Rača with 262.1 million euros, Kragujevac's FCA Serbia with 255.7 million euros and "Grundfos" from Indjija whose exports in this period were worth 200,6 million euros.

Among the largest exporters are HIP Petrohemija with 193.6 million euros, "Robert Bosch" with 190.5 million euros, Bor-Brest-based "Serbia Zijin Mining" with 179 million euros, "Hemofarm" from Vrsac with 175.8 million euros, and "Philip Morris" from Niš and ZF Serbia from Pancevo, which exported 169 million euros and 168.1 million euros, respectively, RTS reports.